

Confined Space Safety Courses

Use of Self Contained Breathing Apparatus Course

One Day

Course code: BA01

Designed for:

Personnel who require to a competence certificate for use of self contained BA or Airline BA.

Objectives:

To provide and assess delegates practical knowledge and skills to carry out pre-use checks and donning procedures on specific breathing apparatus.

Structure & Content

- Introduction to R.P.E.
- Definition of Breathing apparatus
- Elementary Physiology
- Set & Cylinder construction
- User pre-use checks
- Donning procedures
- After use care and wearer checks
- Record keeping
- Storage of BA
- Health & Hygiene
- Group exercise
- Practical exercise/assessment
- Written test
- Course evaluation / close

This course will conclude with a practical wearer exercise & assessment, using manufactures standard procedures. Also a written test will be given to all delegates.

On completion of this course a Phoenix Safety certificate of competence will be awarded to successful delegates.

This course can be tailored to meet your requirements, including your company procedures.
For further details contact our office on 0845 600 9594 NOW.