

Working at Heights Management and Supervisory Responsibilities

Overview

This programme sets out the legislative background and also provides interpretation of the responsibilities of Managers and Supervisors to ensure continuing statutory compliance.

Duration

1 day

Who should attend

All those who have Managerial or Supervisory responsibility for those involved in working at heights. All those involved in planning and organising such work. Safety Professionals, Safety Representatives/ Representatives of Employee Safety.

Benefits to you & your organisation

By the end of the course delegates will be able to: -

- Evaluate the impact of the new regulations on their working environment.
- Form a balanced opinion of the potential impact on their organisation.
- Understand the impact of the regulations on their roles as Managers and Supervisors.
- Pro-actively implement procedures and controls in a structured and measured manner to ensure cost-effective compliance.
- Identify the need for the training and development of staff.
- Identify where their organisation needs to make changes to procedures and work practices.

Course content includes

- Review of current legal obligations and duties.
- Implications for Planners, Supervisors and Managers.
- Implications for selection, recruitment, training and development.
- The place of Risk assessment, method statements and operational procedures as a part of safe systems of work.
- Implementation of a safe working at heights programme.

Suggested follow up training

Working at Heights – Equipment Specific Programmes.

